

Rob A. Bovitz, CPA, - President

President of Bovitz CPA P.C. and Bovitz Management Services, Inc., with offices in Trenton and Canton, Michigan. He is a graduate of the University of Detroit (Cum Laude, 1982) with a B.S. in accounting and has been a licensed CPA since 1984.

Rob is a past member of the Directors of the Michigan Association of CPAs and currently serves on the Presidential Advisory Committee.

Mr. Bovitz is a past chairman of the Southern Wayne County Regional Chamber and President of the Trenton Business Association and Trenton Jaycees. Rob has been honored as the "Outstanding Young Man of the Year" by the Trenton Jaycees. The MACPA honored Rob with the Chair's Service Award in 1999 and the Outstanding Task Force award in 2002 for community service projects and "Ask a CPA" call in days.

Rob is also very active with local organizations such as the Downriver Council for the Arts, The Information Center, Community Theatre Groups, and donates his personal time to various civic and community projects. Rob serves as a contributing writer to the Downriver Profile and local newspapers.

Other organizations that Mr. Bovitz serves as a Director on the Board include the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, Trillium Performing Arts Academy, Canton Performing Arts Center, Catholic Youth Organization, Romulus Chamber of Commerce, and various community action groups.

Bovitz CPA, P.C. is a full-service CPA firm. Services include individual, corporate, partnership, estate, trust, and pension and profit sharing tax preparation, in addition to comprehensive accounting for all business types. Other services include eldercare assurance advisory, management consulting, small business start-up, insurance review, payroll preparation, non-profit management, condominium association management, and computer software consultation.

Rob and Katie Bovitz were married in December of 1999.

Robert (Rob) A. Bovitz
MACPA Public Service Achievements

1) Name of Organization and Purpose

Leukemia and Lymphoma Society – Michigan Chapter (1995-Current) Karmanos Cancer Institute (1986-2000) Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) (1991-Current) Trenton Jaycees (1988-2001) Downriver Council for the Arts (1989-Current) YMCA Major Donor Committee (2005-Current) United Way Allocation Committee (2006-Current) Arbor Hospice Community Board (2006-2007) Everybody Ready (2006-Current) Trillium Academy Trustee (2003-Current)

2) Nominees Activities and Accomplishments

The Southern Wayne County Regional Chamber (1200 Membership) named Rob the Community Service Award winner of 2007 and the Downriver Council for the Arts will honor Rob with the Salute to Excellence Award in September, 2008. Rob has served on numerous charitable organizations' board of directors and various sub-committees or event planning task forces. Rob has chaired The Leukemia Light the Night-Downriver (1999-2007), DCA's Salute to Excellence Awards Dinner (1995, 2002), Karmanos Cancer's West Regional Golf Outing (1998) and has served for many years on the Executive Board and numerous activities of The Trenton Jaycees. Rob was honored in 2004 as the Leukemia Society of Michigan Man of the Year Community Leader for raising over $30,000.

3) Impact on Community

In addition to the charitable, philanthropic and service efforts, Rob has helped the community by serving on various Chambers of Commerce Boards and chaired the 1200 member Southern Wayne County Regional Chamber in 1996. Efforts as President of the Trenton Business Association (1985-2002) helped coordinate road reconstruction of West Jefferson by using relationships with State, County and Local elected officials.

Involvement in the Republican Party and public service events (blood drives, capitalist day bake sales, parades, festivals, and chili cook-offs) have generated public enthusiasm and overall government awareness and literacy.

4) Time Commitment

Rob's schedule is at an all time high, even with taking care of 5 year old daughter Allison and 3 year old Jillian with wife Katie (married since 1999). Total hours devoted to non-profit activities have averaged 610/year since 1985.

5) Innovation

Rob's greatest contribution has been the giving of resources of knowledge, relationships, experience and forward thinking. Positive approaches to challenging projects gives Rob the energy and drive to help make this world a better place in which to live.

6) Nominee's Rationale

See attached letter

For Immediate Release

Contact: Alan Upchurch/Lauren Herrin
Marx Layne & Company
248-855-6777

ROBERT A. BOVITZ HONORED WITH PUBLIC SERVICE AWARD FROM MICHIGAN ASSOCIATION OF CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

TROY, Mich., October XX, 2010 – The Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants (MACPA) and its President and CEO Peggy A. Dzierzawski, CAE, recently recognized Robert A. Bovitz at its annual awards dinner with the Public Service Award. The evening celebrated those who have made an impact in the accounting industry and in the community.

Bovitz was awarded for his dedication to the betterment of his community outside of his role as a CPA. He has received recognition in the past from the MACPA, including the Chair's Service Award and member honors for Outstanding Task Force of the Year.

“Robert Bovitz’s greatest contribution has been his forward thinking,” said Dzierzawski, CAE. “His philosophy of giving to the community, without expectation of returned favors, demonstrates what a CPA really is, and should be, a public servant.”

Bovitz is deeply committed to the arts, and is the president and founding trustee of Trillium Academy, a 725-student charter school focused on fine and performing arts. He also oversaw the construction of the Village Theater at Cherry Hill, and serves on the board of the Downriver Council for the Arts. In addition to his efforts toward the arts, he continues to serve various other charitable and philanthropic organizations such as the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, United Way Allocation Committee, Arbor Hospice, and the Karmanos Center.

Bovitz is the president of Bovitz & Co., CPA, P.C., a full-service CPA firm in Trenton and Canton. The firm services include individual, corporate, partnership, estate, trust, and pension and profit sharing tax preparation, in addition to comprehensive accounting for all business types.

A resident of Canton, Bovitz received his B.S. in Accounting from the University of Detroit, cum laude, in 1982 and has been a licensed CPA since 1984.

The Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants is a diversified, professional, member-driven organization serving nearly 18,000 CPAs and affiliated professionals throughout Michigan. Visit MACPA's web site at www.michcpa.org.

###